INTERNATIONAL FUNDS

These funds are supported by voluntary contributions of chapters and members. Make checks payable to The Questers, designate on the face of the check the name of the fund being supported and send to International Headquarters. Donations made by individuals are tax deductible.

Fellowship Fund:– This fund assists a graduate student in the three-year Art Conservation Department program at the University of Delaware/Winterthur and is awarded every three years.

Scholarship Columbia University Fund:– The Scholarship at Columbia University is awarded to a student who has been accepted into the two-year Master's degree program by the Columbia University Graduate School of Architecture, Planning and Preservation.

Bardens Scholarship Fund: This Scholarship, beginning July 1, 2019, for tuition assistance in an accredited two-year Graduate program in Historic Preservation and Restoration. This scholarship will be awarded when the threshold of $50,000 in donations is reached.

Preservation and Restoration/Grant Fund:– Funded by a portion of each member's International dues and by chapter and individual donations. This fund will be used to support the Grand Awards given in the even International Convention year.

210 Maintenance Fund:– This fund assists with maintenance of our International Headquarters building in Philadelphia. Since this is privately owned by The Questers you can not fundraise with the public. Only personal or chapter, state and provincial donations may be accepted.

Education Resources:– This fund is used to support the educational resources available through The Questers International. This includes DVD's, power point presentations, study paper programs and The Questers web site.
